King's Head Court, Keswick,*

CONDITIONS OF SALE.

1.—The highest bidder to be the purchaser; but should any dispute arise between two or more bidders regarding the biddings, the same shall be determined by the Auctioneers, who shall also have the right of rejecting any bidding, or of regulating its amount, and of bidding for, withdrawing from sale, consolidating, or dividing any lot.

2.—All lots shall, immediately upon the fall of the hammer, be at the sole risk of the respective purchasers, who shall, if required, give in their names and addresses, and pay down in cash a deposit of 25 per cent. or such further sum as the Auctioneer shall demand.

3.—The buyers shall remove their several lots on the day of Sale; but prior to such removal the whole amount of their purchase money shall be paid to the Auctioneers, or the person they appoint to receive the same, and the deposit previously paid by any purchaser shall be applicable to all or any of his or her lots.

4.—No purchaser shall have the right to avail himself or herself of any set-off or other plea for non-payment of their purchase money, against the Auctioneers or their principals, but they shall be liable to the Auctioneers for any unpaid purchase money whether the lots have been delivered or not.

5. The lots are at the risk of the purchaser at the fall of the hammer, and must be removed, with all errors of description, at the purchaser's expense; and should there be any error in the description of any lot or lots no compensation shall be given, nor for any loss occasioned by fire, accident, or otherwise. The lots are believed to be correctly described, but it is distinctly stipulated that the Auctioneers sell every lot without any guarantee or warranty whatever, even in instances where the authenticity may appear indisputable. Purchasers must therefore act entirely on their own judgment.

6.—If any purchaser neglects or refuses to comply with the above conditions, or any of them, his or her deposit money shall be forfeited, and the lots uncleared shall be re-sold without further notice, by public auction, or private contract, at the discretion of the Auctioneers; and any loss occasioned by such second sale, together with all expenses attendant thereon and arising under these conditions, shall be paid by such purchaser, and be recoverable as and for liquidated damages. This condition, however, is without prejudice to the right of the Auctioneers to enforce the contract made at this sale if they may think fit, by an action at law or otherwise, and the Entry of the Clerk in the Sale Book, verified by the Auctioneer, shall be deemed full and sufficient evidence of such contract, and binding alike upon vendors and purchasers.
